Their Excellencies' Opening Remarks

Warm and toasty greetings to Our fair populace from your esteemed Baron and Baroness!

We want to reiterate our plea that all officers have at least one viable deputy. Viable means that this deputy is eligible to take your place if needed and is actively involved in your duties as an officer. If you are having trouble finding candidates, please contact Jean Maurice as your Seneschal or Us (where We'll help you brainstorm, but will still contact Jean Maurice).

Also, it came up in the officers meeting in December as well as at the (not just) Dessert Revel that We are working to create three new awards within the barony. They would be non-order awards for service, arts & sciences, and fighting activities. This would put the baronial awards more in line with Kingdom awards and help members better see their progress within the society. If you have ideas for award names or heraldry, please let Us know!

Lastly, We are researching new coronets to represent Marinus. The current coronets are almost 20 years old and have been well-loved, but jewelry technology has advanced a lot since then. We are hoping to find attractive, lightweight and durable coronets that are a great representation of Marinus. We're in the very early stages of this, so a budget hasn't been worked out, but We wanted everyone to be aware.

Looking at the calendar, there are a TON of events and activities in the coming months. Be sure to have fun, but don't get burned out. Coronation will be here in the blink of an eye and no one needs to be wiped out. Ask for help, delegate, pace yourselves. That said, Our progress of events We're attending is noted in this Moot as well. We hope to see you around!

Bundle up until spring!
Aradd and Isabel
