Opening Remarks from the Baron and Baroness

Fond greetings to all Our war weary populace!

First let Us say that this Pennsic was magical on many levels. It was a joy for Us to spend the War together as Baron and Baroness as well as with all Our fine members in camp. We are truly sad that more people could not attend.

Many thanks to Mungoe, Siobhan and Catalina for all their hard work in running the camp. We are not the quietest camp on site, but we're certainly having a good time and it shows. And much praise for Lord Ezekial Burgess for his well-deserved Award of Arms at Atlantian Court!

As We return home, Our thoughts turn to the exploits we will have in the coming months. Bacon Wars in Tir-y-don demands that Marinus come to the defense of our Smith Fields and We hope to see as many of you there as possible on September 21. Her Excellency is sharpening her rapier blades in anticipation! And then War of the Wings is coming up October 12th (and surrounding days).

It's also cooling off soon and will be prime time for enticing new members at Trashmore or elsewhere. Think of all the things that have inspired you within the Society and that inspiration will prove infectious.

Vivant the fine members of the Barony by the Sea!

Aradd and Isabel

- There was much discussion about transferring monies from the General fund over to the Pavilion fund. It was decided that we would do more research on pricing from different companies while we continue to raise more funds. We will revisit this at November's moot and make some final decisions then. We would optimally like to place an order at the first part of December so that it is finished and delivered in time for Ymir.
