Officer Reports

Baron and Baroness:

Greetings,

We would like to start by saying congratulations to Johannes Von Hammersbach. He won the novice category of virtual Southern Atlantian Archery Day (SAAD). This was his first royal round score in Atlantia. Congratulations, Johannes!

Unfortunately, due to COVID 19, we had to cancel the Old School War Practice scheduled for late June and we had to cancel Day of Challenge scheduled in late August. All events for July that are on the Kingdom calendar have been cancelled and there is one event remaining on the Kingdom calendar for August.

Please continue to join us for meetings and get-togethers via Zoom. We continue to hold activities nights on Tuesdays and our Brewers' Guild meets on Friday nights. Keep an eye out for the meeting invites on the Baronial Facebook page.

Award recommendations – Don't forget that even though we aren't doing any SCA events, we are still doing things virtually and you can still submit award recommendations! You can submit them at <http://www.baronyofmarinus.com/award-recomendation.php>.

Chronicler:

Officer – please remember to email me your inputs for the agenda one week before MOOT.

Herald:

Congratulations to Heloise de Bruyeres for being a proud badge owner: (Fieldless) A beehive Or.

Exchequer:

1. After paying the annual storage unit fee, the Barony currently enjoys a bank balance of $ 7,829.63 - taken from the check register because May's bank statement has not arrived yet. (Signatures will be required...)

2. 2020 First Quarter Exchequer's report was submitted electronically on the due date with everything balancing appropriately. (Signatures required...) To be legal, I still need to send the signed copies of the report to the Regional Exchequer which should happen shortly after meeting with the Seneschal.

Quartermaster:

If anyone needs into the baronial storage unit, please contact Baroness Siobhan McKlinchey. (Sharon Heller)

Knight Marshal:

In accordance with Kingdom of Atlantia Policy, the Crown has cancelled all in person events (fighter practices, A & S, meetings, etc.) through July 1, 2020. Virtual activities will continue.

- No official practices held

Southern Atlantian Archery Day XII Virtual Shoot. Any archer who can safely shoot the challenge and submit a score is encouraged to do so. It is an excellent example of the Kingdom ability to be agile and adapt. The shoot consists of 6 ends at 20 yards. No Marshal required. Scores submitted using the "honor system". Good luck!

Self-training opportunities:

- University of Atlantia provides opportunity for those who seek an Armored Marshal, Rapier Warrant or a refresher course to keep their current Warrant authorized.
- Virtual Atlantia provides opportunity for those to attend several virtual training events to include virtual rapier practice, Ask the Knights (chat about training, knighthood, etc.), SCA Coaches Corner (teaching, training and coaching for SCA combat) are just a few of the many virtual activities around the Kingdom. Go check it out!
- There are many training resources available on YouTube one can view and practice at home, such as SCA Rapier Combat, Target Archery, Armored Fighting or Combat Archery These training tips, techniques, and exercises could be practiced in your home and still keep one ready to take to the field when activities reopen.

All fighter practices are temporarily cancelled. No waivers.

Cool Corner

Brewing By The Sea has sponsored two more open Pub Nights and a special brew day. We welcomed the master brewers from Albemarle Cideworks and Garage Brewing. Albemarle also included tasting guides for cider tastings. Great job by Lady Antoinette Argentina in coordinating such a big event that include TRM's going in for the tastings!

Albemarle CIDERWORKS

Lord Paganus also lead a perry and favored cider Pub Night.

Garage Brewing originally offered a special brew day to the guild as a “hands on”. However, due to many guild members work restrictions did not allow, so the brewery did a full virtual brew day just for us!
