Officer Reports

Baron and Baroness:

Unto all of Marinus do We, Baron Jean Maurice and Baroness Catalina, bid greetings,

This month the Barony of Caer Mear will be holding their baronial birthday just a couple of hours away on the 21st of March. And then Defending the Gate, in the Barony of Steirbach, is always a good one to attend. That will be happening on the 28th.

Spring is upon us - Its already feeling warmer out. Before you know it, the camping season will begin. Let's all start talking about the different events that we are planning to attend and how we can help each other get to events, have garb for events, and how we can help each other camp at events. We are a team of awesome people!

Oh...and let's not forget that We are also looking forward to the Southampton Renaissance Fair coming near the end of April. There are lots of things that are going to start happening!

Chronicler:

I need ideas for upcoming newsletters.

Officer – please remember to email me your inputs for the agenda one week before MOOT to ensure the Seneschal can run a smooth meeting.

Chatelaine:

Upcoming demos:

April 25th-26th Southampton Renaissance Faire. My hope is to have a larger presence and more so a camp presence. Even if you don't intend to camp, us setting up the Baronial pavillion, putting out banners, etc goes a long way. Please see sign up sheet posted to the baronial group or see me after Moot to sign up.

Tidewater Comicon May 16-17 (pending acceptance of application). This was really fun to do last year. Please contact me if you're interested in participating as we are only allowed a table and limited admittance.

Feel free to contact me via email or Facebook messages regarding any questions about the demos or anything else.

Our 4th Quarter Exchequer's (Doomsday) Report was corrected by the Virginia Regional Exchequer as evidently, I began the report with an incorrect 3rd quarter report and I was unable to reconcile it even though I was doing everything correctly.
